

Resource Name	Link	How Used
All standards organizations
ASTM standards library (through our University)	http://www.astm.org/	Standards
Assoc Advancement of Medical Instrumentation (AAMI)	http://www.aami.org/	Standards and Info on Design History Files
ISO Standards	http://www.iso.org	How do you go about asking the right question?
National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST)	http://www.nist.gov
University IRB and IACUC	iacuc.org
Human Subjects Testing	phrp.nihtraining.com	Have students complete modules
ISO, ASTM, AAMI	mddionline.com	Student access granted without high cost of purchasing standards (often unread)
UW Libraries	https://www.lib.washington.edu/engineering/resources/standards	Standards collection info at the UW Engineering Library
FDA Concensus Standards	http://www.accessdata.fda.gov/scripts/cdrh/cfdocs/cfStandards/search.cfm	Can search the FDA Recognized Concensus Standards established by Standards Organizations for specific Product Areas (extensive database)
Industrial Designers of America	http://www.idsa.org/
ASTM and other Standards (ISO)		They have programs like 10 for 10 dollars (for students)
Google		Searching for standards in general